Estelle's Scott Pickett joins the Feast!

"The High Country is one of my favourite spots in the world - I love it up here. The vision that the farmers have, being small, boutique, local, their respect for the land, their respect for the produce, for who they are and their view on life, I think is really remarkable." Scott Pickett

Renowned Melbourne chef, Scott Pickett, is bringing some serious star-power to this year's Feast High Country Festival, taking place around the region from Friday 3 May.

This year's very special Feast Festival guest is the much-awarded driving force and creative genius behind Estelle in Northcote, Saint Crispin in Collingwood, Pickett's Deli & Rotisserie at the Victoria Market and newest venture, Matilda across from the Botanic Gardens.

Scott Pickett will join forces with local culinary legend, Simon Arkless at his Chef's Hatted The Terrace restaurant at All Saints Estate, for a once-only four-course collaborative luncheon - The Estelle x The Terrace Restaurant - with matched wines on Saturday 4 May at the winery's iconic, historic barrel room. Pictured: All Saints winemaker, Nick Brown (left) with Scott Pickett (middle) and Simon Arkless at the Brown family's amazing Mount Ophir Estate near Rutherglen.

The menu will feature a range of sensational High Country produce selected and sampled by Scott and Simon on a regional road trip this March, including Black Barn Farm apples from Stanley, ales from King River Brewing, Milawa's Tolpuddle Goat Cheese, Pepo Farms pumpkin seeds and oil from the Ovens Valley, Wandiful Produce nuts from Wandiligong, Bright's Reed & Co Remedy gin and Billson's of Beechworth cordial. As well as All Saints Estate-grown wine and lamb.

High Country produce will also feature on a special Feast High Country Festival menu at Estelle in Northcote in Melbourne on Saturday 13 April.

Scott Pickett's Feast High Country Festival involvement follows a two-year partnership with Movida which has resulted in a select range of High Country produce featuring on the food and drinks menus of Frank Camorra's MoVida Melbourne.
